Nine Kirksey Architects Featured in 'Say It Loud' Exhibit

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS — The 'Say It Loud' Women in Architecture Texas exhibit, which opens this week at the 82nd Annual Texas Society of Architects "Legacy" Conference + Design Expo in San Antonio, includes nine Kirksey architects and designers. The exhibit is a collaboration of 'Say it Loud,' Women in Architecture (WIA), and AIA San Antonio and features the work of women in the architecture and design profession across Texas. The exhibition debuts at the conference and then travels to major cities throughout the state. Nine architects and designers from Kirksey will have their work highlighted at the exhibit and in the Great Diverse Designers Library online. "We are so fortunate to have incredible talent at Kirksey, and this inspiring group of women is a cross-section of that talent," remarks Wes Good, President at Kirksey Architecture. "We are so proud of their leadership here at Kirksey and the lasting impression they are leaving on our profession."
